GUIDELINES FOR LETTER TO SCHOOL DISTRICTS ON REPORTS CONCLUDED AS HOME SCHOOLING

When reports of home schooling are received and, upon investigation, the parent(s) reports this method of providing education for their child(ren), the following information should be sent to the Superintendent of Schools of the appropriate school district.

1. Name and address of the parent.
2. Names and ages of the children for whom home schooling is reported.
3. Date of CA/N report.
4. Date and summary of contact with family.
5. A statement to the effect that this report is being made pursuant to the requirements of Chapter 210 RSMo.
